

A Deaf child in Albuquerque, New Mexico, learns to write with donated SignWriting books. The SignWriting Literacy Project has been active in the Albuquerque Public Schools since 1999.

The SignWriting Literacy Project For Deaf Students

...inspiring deaf children to read, write & type...

Teachers & Students Who Use Sign Language
Receive Donated Books, Videos, CD-Roms & Software

...Classrooms With Deaf Students Receive...

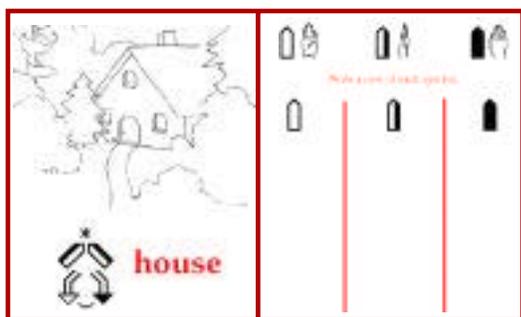

...free for participating classrooms...

1

Goldilocks

Reading Level 1

Workbook & Coloring Book

2

Goldilocks

Reading Level 2

Basic ASL Storybook

3

Sutton's ASL

Picture Dictionary

Illustrated Children's Dictionary

		CRY
		STRAWBERRY

4

SignBank

Dictionary Database

Software For Classroom Computer

...Classrooms With Deaf Students Receive...

...free for participating classrooms...

5

Learn To Read ASL
Reading Levels 3 & 4
plus ASL Children's Stories Video

6

SignWriting
Flashcards: Goldilocks
...over 30 8-1/2 by 11" flashcards.....

7

Lessons In SignWriting
Video Series & Booklets

...In Return....

The teachers give their opinions, feedback and suggestions by completing written reports, which are published in three ways:

- 1. Email
posted on the SignWriting List
- 2. Web
posted on the SignWriting Web Site
- 3. Booklet
SignWriting Literacy Project Report

Deaf Children in Albuquerque, New Mexico, participate in the SignWriting Literacy Project.

Want to join the SignWriting Literacy Project?

Write to Valerie Sutton...
Sutton@SignWriting.org

to request information and application forms.
We look forward to hearing from you!

SignWriting Literacy Project
www.SignWriting.org/forums/teachers/teachers.html