"DEAF STORE"

Deaf Store is now open to Deaf Community. ~~The~~ Deaf partners who helped founded Deaf Store are Janice M. Kavosi and Harry R. Williams.

The main objective of this establishment is to promote Deaf awareness thru sign language instruction and Deaf art appreciation. ~~At~~ Here you will find a three-room office, one room serving as a bookstore selling everything from sign language books to TDD's. Other hard to find items such as ~~flashing~~ flashing clocks can be ordered thru this store.

"The Harry R. Williams Collection" is situated in adjoining room where clients can browse or purchase his paintings. Private sign language classes are also conducted in this room which are taught by Deaf native signers. Reservations for this room to be used for meetings, workshops and social gatherings can be secured thru this office.

book over [ Take the paragraph on the back into this space ]
The location of Deaf Store is <sup>located</sup> at 1833 East 17th Street, Suite 208, Santa Ana, California. <sup>It is</sup> The open days are Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 12:00 to 3:00 and 6:00 to 9:00 pm. Call TDD (714) 543-8006 for more information.

Janice Kavosi, born deaf, graduated from Gallaudet College in 1974 and thereafter received her masters degree in Deaf Education from Western Maryland College. She has been in <sup>deaf education</sup> ~~this profession~~ for the past seven years.

Harry R. Williams was born deaf with a "paint brush in his mouth". He earned BA degree in Art from Gallaudet College in 1974. He is a recipient of several honorable mentions recognizing his art work in oils and mixed media. In <sup>the</sup> Deaf Community, he is nationally known as "Deaf Picasso". His paintings reflect his soundless world and his extraordinary ability to visualize music and express them on canvas.

Deaf Store also distributes Sign Writer newspapers and <sup>the</sup> books ~~on~~ Sign Writing <sup>(E)</sup> for Everyday Use. Hopefully, there will be Sign Writing classes and workshops in this place. ~~here~~ also.
